

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Monday, 14th December 2020 / Lot 2463

LOT 2463

A 19th century Brunswick percussion rifle with sighted barrel, barrel length 76.5cm, the lockplate with 'V.R' cypher and detailed '1864 Tower', full-stocked with brass trigger guard and hinged patch box to butt, retaining ramrod, total length 116cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

2463. The mechanism appears to be in working order and cocking in both positions. Small hairline crack to end of stock by brass cap. Repaired break to bottom edge of butt with two retaining screws. Chipped edges to ramrod opening. Unable to see any visible rifling.

Created: Fri, 4th December 2020 15:57