

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1186

LOT 1186

A Chinese pewter mounted Yixing stoneware four-piece tea set, early 20th century, comprising teapot and cover, water pot and cover, sugar bowl and cover and milk jug and cover, each overlaid with pierced and engraved dragon mounts, impressed marks and applied paper label, inscribed 'Hsin Hor Chung (from Hor Chung)... The Only Reliable Maker of these Teapots in the District', height of teapot 10cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Overall a little dirty and typical wear to pewter commensurate with age and use.

Teapot - generally in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Possibly missing finial.

Hot water - in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Paper label to base partly missing.

Milk jug - In good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs. Entire label to base.

Sugar - in good condition with no significant damage or repairs, couple of small dents to footrim.

Created: Wed, 9th December 2020 16:22