TOOVEY'S
ANTIQUE & FINE ART AUCTIONEERS & VALUERS

LOT 1189   10th December 2020

LOT 1189

A collection of Chinese porcelain, Qing dynasty and later, including a blue and white export porcelain cup and cover, late Qianlong period, painted with landscape and flowers, height 10cm (lacking finial), a Canton famille rose diminutive teapot, height 9.6cm, and a Canton vase, height 10.5cm (some faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Blue and white cup and cover - the cup in generally good condition but does have a minor chip to the inside of the rim, cover is missing finial which has also been ground down.
Canton teapot - 1.5 by 0.9cm chip to rim, otherwise ok, typical wear to gilt and enamels.
Blue and white teapot - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.
Provincial blue and white pot and cover - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.
White glazed buffalo and boy - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.
Wucai style vase - broken in half and re-glued.
Cylindrical vase - restored chip to rim and wear to glaze and enamels.
5 spoons - all in good condition with typical light wear.
Small Canton vase - small chips to rim and typical light wear and surface scratches.
Buddha - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.
Small yellow ground pot - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Typical wear to enamels.
Oval box - porcelain panel in good condition, metalwork with some wear.
Dragon - chips to ears, beard and crest of head, otherwise ok.
Octagonal dish - minor chips to rim and wear to gilt and enamels.
Turquoise ground bowl - chip to rim and hairline cracks, typical wear to enamels.
Yellow ground bowl - numerous small chips and glaze fritting to rim, typical wear to enamels, otherwise ok.
Small dragon bowl - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Thu, 10th December 2020 09:42