LOT 2536

A late 18th/early 19th century ivory and vellum folding fan, the two guards and sticks pierced and carved with figures and leafy tendrils, the 'chicken skin' panel finely painted with three landscape scenes and bordered in gold leaf, length 28cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2536. The guards and sticks are in good condition and the panel has some overall slight browning. There are a few small splits to the folds around the bottom edge of the panel and some areas of crinkling.
