

Jewellery / Wed, 13th January 2021 / Lot 508

LOT 508

A Victorian gold, diamond and turquoise set oval pendant locket, the front with an applied starburst shaped motif, mounted with a central rose cut diamond, otherwise set with turquoise, detailed '18ct', weight excluding interior 24.2g, total length 5.6cm.

Estimate: £700 - £900

---

Condition Report

Interior glazing to both locket compartments missing, locket closes well when the later interior blue ribbons and plastic covers are removed, rose diamond is an attractive white stone in good condition, some variation of colour to the turquoise, applied flower motif to the suspension loop possibly a later addition, back of locket marked '18ct' just below the suspension loop, a few shallow dents at the back of the locket.

Created: Sat, 19th December 2020 10:05