

Jewellery / Wed, 13th January 2021 / Lot 514

LOT 514

A Victorian Scottish gold, citrine, carbuncle garnet, half-pearl and vari-coloured agate pendant brooch in a pierced openwork shield shaped design with a coronet surmount, registration lozenge to back, weight 10g, length 4.5cm, with a 9ct gold faceted curb link neckchain on a boltring clasp, weight 5.1g, length 55.5cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

Pendant brooch in good condition, one tiny dent to the back edge near the hinge of the pin, construction is hollow, two or three tiny holes to the border. Neckchain in good condition.

Created: Sat, 19th December 2020 10:07