

Jewellery / Wed, 13th January 2021 / Lot 632

LOT 632

A Victorian Scottish silver and hardstone brooch pin in the form of a skean-dhu, part hallmark including 'P.W.' maker's mark, weight 24.8g, length 11.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

The agate set handle of the knife has a replacement bloodstone to the lower section, the silver work holding in the jasper above has partial loss and there is a reinforced metal panel at the back, the blade is a bit tarnished, would clean up, hook to brooch pin bent, safety chain attachments connected by a later panel to the scabbard, otherwise would benefit from professional cleaning.

Created: Sat, 19th December 2020 10:32