

Silver and Plate / Wed, 13th January 2021 / Lot 386

LOT 386

A late Victorian plate mounted cranberry flash overlay and clear cut glass cylindrical biscuit barrel, the plated rim and hinged lid with engraved decoration, repeated on the circular stand, total height 17cm, together with a mid-19th century cranberry cut glass scent decanter and stopper, height 21cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

Biscuit barrel - in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs. The glass is in good order. The plating has typical wear commensurate with age and use. The underside of the stand is missing one decorative screw cover but this causes no issues.

Decanter - in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs. There is a teeny tiny nick to the underside edge of the decanter rim, only noticeable on very close inspection.

Created: Mon, 4th January 2021 12:07