LOT 407

A pair of 19th century Sheffield plate twin-branch three-light candelabra, each with urn shaped sconces and foliate moulded nozzles and drip trays, on a foliate baluster stem and shaped square base, height 54cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

The pair of candelabra are in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs.

The plating is overall very typically worn in all the expected places.

There are no maker's marks or stamps, but each central column is marked '124 A' to the base interior of the sconce.

All 6 nozzles are present and both snuffers.

It is possible to stack the two 3 light arms to form one 5 light candelabra.
