

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 21st January 2021 / Lot 1139

LOT 1139

A late 19th century French ormolu and Sèvres style porcelain mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the porcelain dial with blue Roman hour numerals and flowers within pink and gilt borders, the case with ovoid surmount and pinecone finials above three further porcelain panels to front and sides, filled with cherubs, musical instruments and other objects within pink borders, on a cast foliate breakfront base, height 33.5cm, with pendulum.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1139. The clock is in generally good condition, if a little dirty. Porcelain in good order with no significant damage or repairs, but minor wear to gilt. Small re-glued chip to left of winding hole on dial. Ormolu in good order, but dirty. The movement winds smoothly and runs, and striking mechanism in good working condition striking hours and half hours, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. There is a non-original winding key with the clock.

Created: Fri, 15th January 2021 11:22