LOT 1143

A late 19th century walnut Vienna style wall clock with eight day movement striking on a gong, the two piece enamel dial with black Roman numerals, the glazed case with arch pediment, urn finials and ionic columns above a tapered apron, height 123cm, with pendulum and two brass weights.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1143. Case in generally good condition, if a little dusty and dirty. Dial has numerous hairline cracks visible in online images. The movement winds smoothly but is not currently running, possibly a clean/refurbishment required.
