Condition Report

2013. The whole set has been fully restored, presumably for retail, as it has all been carried to a high-end professional level. This includes some re-carved sections to the top and centre rails, as well as some front plates to the seat rails. There is one chair that has a very slightly loose rear leg joint, and another chair that has a thin crack in one leg but otherwise the chairs are structurally sound and highly finished. Newly upholstered with clean damask seats.
