LOT 2926

A large Afghan carpet, early/mid-20th century, the pale claret field with three columns of linked guls, within a hooked gul border, 550cm x 282cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2926. The overall pile is generally ok, however there are some areas of fairly substantial moth damage, with loss to pile and holes to foundation. One corner is slightly more faded in colour than the rest of the carpet. There are two main patches of moth damage to the centre of the carpet and a smaller patch towards the faded corner. Otherwise there are some lines of wear along raised areas of the pile.
