LOT 193

Continental School - Flower Charged Vases, a pair of early 20th century oils on panel, both signed with monogram, 59cm x 49cm, within gilt frames with foliate mouldings.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Generally in good condition. Slight bowing to the boards. Some surface dirt. Old varnish is uneven and discoloured. UV examination highlights the greenish bloom of the varnish, beyond that it looks like there are some small areas of overpainting to the backgrounds of each. Some scuffing and minor loss of composition to extremities, particularly the corners. Some minor cracks to composition elsewhere.

Additional Information

External measurements of frames are 62cm x 72cm.
