

Rugs and Carpets / Thu, 28th January 2021 / Lot 2917

LOT 2917

An Esfahan carpet, Central Persia, early 20th century, the terracotta field with a pale blue medallion, supported by scrolling arabesques issuing palmettes, within an ink blue scrolling vine and palmette border, 320cm x 207cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2917. The carpet has an overall slightly worn pile, but quite evenly worn and nothing down to the foundation. The side cords have been re-bound at some stage. One corner with a few small patches of loss to pile and a few very small surface damages to pile.

Created: Thu, 28th January 2021 12:59