

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 388

LOT 388

A 20th plated Judaic Torah scroll case, the pierced openwork crown surmount fitted with a bell within, the cylindrical body decorated in relief with a scene of figures and foliate bands, length 46.3cm, together with a pair of plated on copper Torah scroll finials (Rimonim), length 27cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

388. Torah scroll holder – appears to be in generally good condition with typical light surface wear and scratches. The only apparent damage is the crown surmount which has been pushed down slightly. Torah scroll finials - both have wear to plating and one has a significant dent to body and missing surmount finial. Otherwise both with typical wear.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 10:19