

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1495

LOT 1495

A Sèvres porcelain octagonal cabinet plate, second half 18th century, painted with a central still life arrangement of fruit and flowers within a pink ground rim with teal edging, outlined in gilt, gilt painted mark to base with a cypher for Tandart, diameter 22.7cm, together with a similar green ground dish of triangular shape, length 22.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1495. Pink ground plate - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. There is a tiny chip to the footrim and some minor surface scratches. The gilding to the rim has some spots of wear. The enamels are good.

Green ground plate - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some overall light black pitting suggesting a re-firing, with some overall indistinct wear/rubbing to the high points of the enamels of the flowers and fruit. There are some surface scratches. The gilding is not worn. There are two decorated over (during manufacture) chips to the rim edge.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 10:30