

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1496

LOT 1496

A Meissen floral encrusted part cabaret set, late 19th/early 20th century, painted with scattered insects around applied flowerheads and floral arrangements, comprising a teapot and cover, height 9cm, a coffee pot and cover, height 14cm, a milk jug, height 9cm, and a pot and cover with high scroll handle, height 8cm, crossed swords in underglaze blue to bases, together with a matched teacup and saucer (minor faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

1496. Each piece is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The enamels and gilding are good with no real wear or losses. There are overall typical losses/chips to the applied flowers and foliage but nothing too significant and overall commensurate with age.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 10:30