

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 423

LOT 423

A Victorian silver card case of shaped rectangular form with hinged lid, engraved with foliate scrolls and strapwork, Birmingham 1857 by George Unite, length 9.8cm, together with an Edwardian silver card case of curved rectangular form with engine turned banding and hinged lid, Chester 1909 by William Neale, length 8.6cm, and a silver vesta, Birmingham 1907 by William J. Holmes, length 4.3cm, total weight 122.5g.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

423. Engraved card case - good condition. Hinge is good, engraving crisp, only minor surface scratches and wear. Engraved initials.

Curved card case - generally good condition, hinge is good, typical light surface scratches and wear.

Vesta - generally good condition, small dent to front right lower corner and typical light wear and surface scratches.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 15:21