

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 425

LOT 425

A George VI silver and cut glass sugar caster, Birmingham 1939 by Adie Brothers, height 18.5cm, together with a small collection of other silver items, including six napkin rings, a child's spoon, cased, and various condiments, weight excluding glass items 297g.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

425. Caster is in good clean condition.

All napkin rings in generally good order but all have personalised engravings.

All other items in generally fair condition with typical wear.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 15:27