

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 442

LOT 442

A Continental white metal Judaic Torah scroll holder, the cylindrical body embossed with foliate panels, fitted with a winding handle, length 28cm, together with a Judaic silver cup and a set of three Italian silver reproduction plaques of the bronze door panels at San Zeno depicting biblical scenes, cased, total weight excluding Torah scroll 262.3g.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

442. The silver cylindrical case in generally good order with typical light surface scratches and wear. Small dent to body and small split to rim on one side. The parchment has some discolouration and wear and the cover is lightly misshapen. Winding handle is slightly worn and finial/nut is missing to other end.

Goblet/cup is dented and misshapen.

Three silver plaques are in good condition.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 16:22