

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 462

LOT 462

A George V silver capstan inkwell with glass liner and hinged lid, Birmingham 1920, diameter 12.6cm, together with a silver spill vase, London 1919, height 15.4cm, and a silver rectangular snuff box, the hinged lid decorated with the Last Supper, length 6.3cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

462. Inkwell - generally good order, minor dents to top of hinged cover. Typical light surface scratches and wear but no significant damage or repair. Marks slightly rubbed.

Spill vase - few small dents to the body and foot, otherwise ok.

Box - good condition, typical light surface wear. Hinge is good.

Created: Mon, 8th March 2021 17:02