

Antiquarian and Collectors' Books / Wednesday, 17th March 2021 / Lot 3103

LOT 3103

[De GREY, Thomas. The Compleat Horseman and Expert Ferrier. London: Thomas Harper for Lawrence Chapman, 1639.] First edition, 4to (272 x 177mm.) Engraved illustration in the text. (Only fragment of title remains, lacking frontispiece of Charles I, damp-stained throughout, soiling, lacking leaf F4 and 6 leaves to the rear, several loose leaves, P2 torn with loss.) Contemporary calf (worn). - And a further two volumes relating to horses (including Gervase Markham's 'Markham's Master-Piece Revived', 1694, 4to, dated to the second part, lacking general title) (3).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Additional Information

3103. Third book is 'Farriery Improv'd: or, a compleat Treatise Upon the Art of Farriery' by Henry Bracken, 1742.

Created: Tue, 9th March 2021 11:01