

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1415

LOT 1415

A Royal Doulton miniature stoneware Lord Nelson commemorative mug and beaker, early 20th century, each decorated in relief in green with a portrait of Lord Nelson flanked by ships, against a cobalt blue ground, impressed marks to bases, heights 3.9cm and 4.5cm (beaker with hairline crack), together with five Royal Doulton salt glazed stoneware miniature jugs.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

Nelson mug - 2 minuscule manufacturer's glaze nicks to underside edge of base, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Nelson beaker - 3.5cm long vertical haircrack through one of the green ship panels, otherwise in good condition.

5 jugs - they are a graduated set, the smallest is missing its handle, otherwise they are all in good condition.

Created: Wed, 10th March 2021 15:51