

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1431

LOT 1431

A Staffordshire porcelain part service, second half 19th century, painted with a continuous border of pink, lilac and gilt flowers, comprising sugar bowl, milk jug, ten teacups, eleven saucers and twelve sandwich plates, diameter 17.5cm, painted gilt number '4342' to bases (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

1431. In generally good condition, though some staining, crazing and minor wear overall.

Cups - one chipped, another cracked.

Saucers - okay.

Sandwich plates - two with hairline cracks, one with firing crack.

Sugar bowl - okay.

Milk jug - okay.

Created: Wed, 10th March 2021 16:55