

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1437

LOT 1437

A set of three gilt metal mounted Sèvres style porcelain dishes, late 19th/early 20th century, puce painted with landscapes and floral sprays flanked by stylized green palmettes against a yellow ground, comprising an oval dish, length 28cm, and two circular dishes, diameter 15.2cm, pseudo Sèvres mark to bases.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1437. All in generally good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

One smaller dish with wear to the gilt rim.

The metal mounts have lost a lot of their gilt decoration, particularly the pair of dishes.

Created: Wed, 10th March 2021 17:06