

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1481

LOT 1481

A Coalport part service, early 20th century, decorated with floral panels against a gilt overlaid cobalt blue ground, comprising six dinner plates, six tea plates, six teacups and saucers, sugar bowl, jug and three serving plates, together with a pair of Waterford vases, height 20.3cm, and a small group of ceramics.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE this is a partial condition report on the Coalport service only in this lot, please contact us if you wish to know about the condition of the other items in the lot.

Coalport Service:

Oval serving plate/dish - central gilt motif completely worn with similar loss to gilt detail on cavetto.

Larger square dish/plate - some rubbing to central gilt motif.

One tea plate badly cracked.

3 saucers with some crazing

1 saucer with small chip to underside rim edge, not visible from upper surface.

Otherwise the remaining items are in good condition overall, there is typical light rubbing/surface scratches but nothing untoward and commensurate with age and use, e.g., to rims of cups.

Created: Thu, 11th March 2021 09:47