

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1542

LOT 1542

A porcelain tea caddy and cover, late 20th century, painted with still life studies of fruit by the Worcester artist Terence Nutt, signed, height 13.5cm, together with a similar vase and cover, height 16cm, a vase, height 17.7cm, and an Aynsley Orchard Gold vase, height 12.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Each piece is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The caddy has some very minor scratches to the neck where the cover sits over it - nothing untoward.

Created: Thu, 11th March 2021 10:33