

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1435

LOT 1435

A Coalport porcelain part service, early 19th century, gilt with a border of flowers against a pink ground, pattern No. 2/146, comprising six teacups, two coffee cups, eight saucers and a slop bowl, together with a group of assorted mostly 19th century cabinet cups and saucers (some faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Below please find a concise list of items with condition issues in the lot - the remaining items not listed here are in good condition with only some typical light wear.

Pink ground Coalport set; 3 saucers heavily crazed with light staining, 1 saucer with some fine craze lines. 3 saucers heavily crazed, slop bowl with haircrack through base, 1 coffee cup with fine vertical haircrack, 2 teacups with haircrack to handle, 1 teacup with riveted handle. Overall typical wear to gilding.

Barr Worcester type coffee can - fine starcrack to base.

Black ground Cauldon breakfast cup and saucer - cup rivet repaired, saucer with scratches to ground.

Pink rim and floral teacup and saucer - unmarked, cup crazed.

Wileman moulded cup and saucer with blue decoration - cup crazed with light staining, hairline to saucer.

Gaudy Welsh diminutive mug - staining and two starcracks to base.

Green rim and floral teacup and saucer - unmarked apart from pattern number 142, both pieces heavily crazed otherwise ok.

Royal Worcester cobalt blue ground can with gilt fleur-de-lys - crazed with hairline.

Printed and painted teacup and saucer - Rd No. 153228, both pieces crazed but otherwise ok.

Plant yellow ground teacup and saucer - saucer crazed, otherwise ok.

Minton type turquoise band and floral can and saucer - short hairline to saucer.

Delphine octagonal can and saucer - short hairline to can.

Aynsley cobalt blue rim and floral can and saucer - can cracked.

Paragon can and saucer with black laurel decoration - saucer crazed, can with haircrack.

George Jones type floral cup and saucer - handle glued.

Coalport cup and saucer - crazed but ok.

Early 19th century landscape painted cup and saucer - saucer crazed but ok.