LOT 2901

A Ghashghai rug, South-west Persia, early 20th century, the charcoal field with overall offset columns of stepped compartments, enclosing birds and palmettes, within a boteh and palmette border, 177cm x 150cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2901. A generally quite low worn pile, some repaired splits to one side. Loss to both ends with borders worn, slight loss to one corner. Hole and a repaired hole to central medallion with rewoven section. A few other small areas of re-piling. One end has three canvas suspension loops attached. Considering the condition the rug is relatively clean. Areas of re-binding to edges.
