

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1409

LOT 1409

Six Royal Doulton character jugs, comprising Mark Twain, D6694, Benjamin Franklin, D6695, The Guardsman, D6771, Rip Van Winkle, D6463, Long John Silver, D6512 (second quality), and Robin Hood, D6541, together with three other pottery character jugs.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Long John Silver - factory second, long vertical haircrack.

Kelsboro Ware Auld Mac - tiny chip to base edge.

Beswick Tony Weller - crazed, otherwise ok.

Rip Van Winkle - please note this is a table lighter missing the mechanism, D6463, otherwise is in good condition.

All other items in the lot in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Thu, 11th March 2021 13:32