

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1526

LOT 1526

A group of assorted porcelain and pottery figures and animals, 20th century, comprising three Worcester Doughty figures, four Beswick Beatrix Potter figures, each with gold oval backstamp, four Hummel figures, a Beswick Kingfisher wall plaque, No. 729-1, a Beswick Thelwell pony, a Beswick small Jack Russell, a Doulton figure The Balloon Seller, HN2130, and a Beswick figure Susan, mark BP-3C (minor faults and repairs).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Four Hummel figures - Singing Lesson with minute nick to brim of hat, Playmates with minute nick to tip of one rabbits ear, other two groups ok.

Peter Rabbit - tiny nick to tip of right ear.

Susan - chip to side edge of base.

Jemima Puddleduck - glued repair to neck, chip to footrim.

Egypt - broken through neck and visibly repaired.

All other items in the lot in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Thu, 11th March 2021 14:19