

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1433

LOT 1433

A Dresden porcelain cigarette holder, 20th century, painted with gilt framed flowers within a cobalt blue rim, together with a pair of Dresden leaf shaped dishes and a small group of Continental porcelain, including a Berlin cup with stork handle (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

Yellow ground vase and cover - small chip to upper rim edge of cover.

Bird saucer - some wear to decoration of well and to gilding on rim.

Berlin bird saucer - painted and decorated over manufacturer's chip to underside rim edge, minor wear to well where cup sits.

Muffin dish - the cover is German, the base is Limoges.

2 leaf dishes - one with bad starcrack and glued handle.

Circular box and cover - some wear to enamels.

The other items in the lot are overall in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Thu, 11th March 2021 16:39