

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1541

LOT 1541

A Lladro Gres stoneware wall plaque Holy Virgin, No. 2092, length 35cm, mounted on a velvet covered backplate, together with a Gouda model of the Virgin Mary, height 37cm, and a Dutch Delft oval plaque depicting the Virgin Mary with two putti, height 21.7cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Each piece In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The plaque is crazed with some very minor fritting to the rim edge, only noticeable on close inspection.

The blue glaze of the Virgin Mary has some minor and indistinct glaze blemishes - a manufacturing issue.

Similarly the Lladro piece has a pinhead sized glaze blemish to the centre of the robes.

Please see the extra images on our website using the zoom function.

Created: Fri, 12th March 2021 09:59