

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1569

LOT 1569

A Sèvres style bleu céleste ground jewelled coffee can, mid-19th century, painted with three titled ladies of the court within red jewelled oval frames, flanked by gilt and jewelled decoration, underglaze blue pseudo Sèvres mark to base with gilt script names, height 7.3cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are a few minor losses to the jewelled detail but these are very minor and only noticeable on close inspection.

The gilding and enamels display no real wear, there are a couple of very indistinct and minor surface scratches - only noticeable on very close inspection.

Created: Fri, 12th March 2021 11:09