

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1418

LOT 1418

Two Sèvres style cobalt blue ground coffee cans and saucers, late 19th/early 20th century, both painted with a residence within gilt framing, pseudo Sèvres marks to bases, diameter of saucers 14cm, together with a small group of ceramics and glass, including two Swarovski animals.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE - this is a partial condition report for this lot, please contact us directly if you require information on other items in the lot.

Two cobalt blue ground coffee cans - both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The blue ground on one is a little patchy - a manufacturing issue.

Two cobalt blue ground saucers - one in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, the other with small chip to rim edge at 6 o'clock and unsprung chip to underside rim edge. Both with minor typical wear to wells where cups sit.

Pair of pink ground cups and saucers - both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Typical minor wear to gilding.

Created: Fri, 12th March 2021 11:52