

Antiquarian and Collectors' Books / Wednesday, 17th March 2021 / Lot 3102

LOT 3102

COUNTER-CULTURE. - Arthur KLEPS. Millbrook, the True Story of the Early Years of the Psychedelic Revolution. Vermont: Neo-American Church Inc., 1975. Folio (397 x 288mm.) (Toning to margins, occasional spotting.) Original paper wrappers (toning, light spotting). Note: scarce. The first printing, preceding publication of the book by two years. This is an account of the psychedelic counter-culture centred around Timothy Leary and his fellow researchers at the Hitchcock estate at Millbrook, New York. It was an environment, as described by Nina Graboi, as 'a cross between a country club, a madhouse, a research institute, a monastery, and a Fellini movie set'.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

3102. There is a level of toning throughout. Slight browning to margins of front and back cover and slight spotting to front and back cover. A very small corner loss to the front page.

Created: Mon, 15th March 2021 10:51