

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1483

LOT 1483

A Royal Worcester two-handled vase and cover, circa 1901, the urn shaped body painted with a small hemispherical panel of pink roses above a gilt floral garland and white beaded band, the green glazed body with gilt caillouté type detail, flanked by entwined twin snake handles, green printed marks to base with shape No. 2126, height 21cm (lacking knob, one handle repaired).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Cover missing knob. The 2 upper bodies of one snake handle broken through each head terminal and to part of each body attached to shoulders of vase, each of these breaks professionally restored. Otherwise the vase in good order. No real wear to gilding.

Created: Mon, 15th March 2021 11:25