

Glassware / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1744

LOT 1744

An Arsell cameo glass vase, circa 1930, the gently swollen cylindrical frosted body overlaid in blue and decorated with children picking apples, cameo carved signature, height 9.7cm (minor chip to rim interior), together with a ruby flashed Bohemian engraved goblet, height 13cm, and two flashed hock glasses.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

Cameo vase - small chip to inner rim edge of neck, slightly rough finish to small area on outer rim edge of neck - probably a manufacturing issue.

Goblet - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

2 hock glasses - both in good condition.

Created: Mon, 15th March 2021 14:51