

LOT 1552 16th March 2021

British and Continental Ceramics / Tuesday, 16th March 2021 / Lot 1552

LOT 1552

A mixed group of decorative ceramics and glass, late 19th and 20th century, including a Paris porcelain vase with gilt swan handles, decorated with a couple opposing a landscape, height 27.8cm, an Upsala-Ekeby tile plaque, a Poole dish, two paperweights and a Crown Devon Widdicombe Fair musical mug.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Paris vase - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some rubbing to gilding. Paperweights - good, light surface scratches.

Octagonal dish - starcrack to base, haircrack to footrim, crazed.

Hummel figure - crazed.

Poole dish - small chip to rim.

Framed pictures - minor degradation to white ground of both, additionally minor loss/blemish to white ground of one. Minor losses to frames.

The remaining items in the lot in good condition.

Created: Mon, 15th March 2021 15:11