LOT 2010

A 17th/18th century oak farmhouse kitchen table, the four-plank top raised on moulded block legs, height 73cm, length 212cm, depth 81cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2010. There is a drawer missing one end and it has had a piece of later wood added across the drawer opening. There does not appear to be evidence of any woodworm and the table has a very slight sideways wobble to one end. There is overall minor surface wear and faults to the top commensurate with its age.
