

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 29th April 2021 / Lot 2620

LOT 2620

An early Victorian rosewood tea caddy, the top inlaid with mother-of-pearl, the front with a brass inlaid key escutcheon, width 23.5cm.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

2620. The two rear lower corners have some slight damage and minor loss to the veneer. There is some slight surface fading. The interior which has a central division but no lids, has a slither of veneer missing on rear edge.

Created: Wed, 21st April 2021 13:11