LOT 2703

A large square fragmentary Babylonian clay brick, 7th-6th century BC, the top impressed with a rectangle of cuneiform text, 'Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, provisioner of the temples Esangil and Ezida, son of Nabopolassar, King of Babylon', 32cm x 7.7cm (in two sections and losses to corners). Provenance: from the estate of a West Sussex collector.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Additional Information

2703. Entered from a local deceased estate. The family have very little information about their father's acquisitions. He became a quite serious hoarder and had been acquiring objects of all kinds for many years. These items only came to light when clearing the property.
