

Clocks and Barometers / Wednesday, 28th April 2021 / Lot 1120

LOT 1120

An Art Deco silver and pale green enamel bedside timepiece with Swiss movement, the dial with black Arabic hour numerals, within a circular frame, gimbal mounted on a similarly decorated circular base with engraved presentation inscription, Birmingham 1929 by A.L. Davenport Ltd, height 9cm, together with a similar silver cased bedside timepiece of the same form, Birmingham 1929 by A.L. Davenport Ltd, height 9cm (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1120. Enamel example - does not wind, but when given a gentle shake it does start ticking for a short period. It does adjust smoothly.

Silver example - winds smoothly, but only runs for a few seconds. It adjusts smoothly.

Created: Wed, 28th April 2021 09:38