LOT 358

A pair of late Victorian silver Corinthian column candlesticks, each with detachable nozzle on a fluted column and stepped square base, Sheffield 1886 by Hawkesworth, Eyre & Co Ltd (James Kebberling Bembridge), height 22.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

358. Both in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear, and some minor knocks/dinks to bases and columns, but nothing significant. No apparent splits or tears. Both nozzles in good order, but blue-tac is present beneath them where they were holding candles in place. Good clear and matching hallmarks to bases and nozzles. Would certainly benefit from a clean.
