

Jewellery / Wednesday, 12th May 2021 / Lot 503

LOT 503

A chalcedony fob seal, circa 1820, engraved with a monogram and a crest, fitted with a sprung ring, height 4.1cm, and an early Victorian foil backed citrine fob seal, engraved with a thistle spray and 'Dinna Forget', height 2.3cm.

Estimate: £140 - £180

Condition Report

503. Chalcedony seal – a few tiny chips to the edge of the intaglio crest. Seal mount in good condition.

Citrine seal – is probably colour foil backed to enhance depth of colour. Intaglio good condition. The mount has a bit of rubbing to the high points. Otherwise in attractive condition.

Created: Wed, 5th May 2021 11:06