

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 12th May 2021 / Lot 402

LOT 402

An Edwardian cut glass jug with silver collar and spout above a hobnail cut tapered cylindrical body and loop handle, Sheffield 1903 by Mappin & Webb, height 24.2cm, together with a cut glass condiment bottle with a silver fox head stopper, Birmingham 1952, height 12cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

402. Jug - the glass is in good condition with no significant damage. Silver mount also in good order with only typical light wear. Good clear hallmarks.

Condiment bottle - in good condition. Silver stopper has a small dent to rim, otherwise ok. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Wed, 5th May 2021 12:18