

Jewellery / Wednesday, 12th May 2021 / Lot 763

LOT 763

A gold, ruby and seed pearl brooch, designed as a wreath, fitted with a safety chain, weight 3.9g, width 2.5cm, with a case to hold a ring.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

763. Wreath brooch – the rubies are of medium colour saturation, some of the rubies are damaged. The pearls are in fairly good condition, one of the lower pearls is starting to peel. There are file marks to the back of the piece. The wreath may at one stage have been mounted to the front of an oval locket, and has now been later converted for wear as a brooch.

Ring box – has strut fitting at the back, some of the leather effect paper covering is starting to lift and requires restoration. Box internally in good condition.

Created: Thu, 6th May 2021 10:48