LOT 2202

An Art Deco specimen wood hexagonal revolving bookcase, the top and sides geometrically designed with veneers of maple, calamander and ash, height 63cm, width 41 cm (some minor faults).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

2202. The lower crossbanded border at its frieze has some patches of veneer missing and there are a few small patches of veneer missing on the side so the bookcase. Overall the surface is a little scuffed and marked, but generally the bookcase is in good solid condition and revolves well enough.
