LOT 2801

An early 19th century silkwork sampler by Mary Ann Benson, finely worked with a large central building, inscribed 'W M Harpits?', surrounded by flowers, plants, animals, figures and figures on horseback, 36cm x 33cm, framed (faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2801. Unfortunately, quite poor condition overall with moth holes all over the lower half and scattered throughout the upper half. Otherwise some light browning and typical fading to colours.
